Ehud,

Would you have some time tomorrow– say 8am our time, 2pm your time – to discuss the latest Israeli-Palestinian events with a colleague of ours – Kenan Turnacioglu (cc'd here)? Kenan is a Partner at the firm who covers healthcare and has a particular interest in the latest events given our exposure to the Israeli market. I passed along your thoughts from our discussion yesterday though perhaps we could discuss how you see events unfolding in a little greater detail?

All the best,

Justin
